THEIR MERRY HOLIDAY

How Christmas Was Celebrated Here.

TREATS AT THE CHURCHES

Hundreds of Children Made Happy in the Usual Manner—The Day One of Rest and Order—General Enjoyment For the Best Part of the Town in the Land.

There was an enjoyable time at the First Methodist Episcopal church last night. The pulpit platform was nicely arranged with evergreens, with a Christmas tree occupying the center. Artist Tissot displayed his skill on the blackboard with a neat representation of the star of Bethlehem, with shepherds and sheep and angelic visitants. The program was an enjoyable one, consisting of recitations and service of song, with a royal treat of sweetmeats to the Sabbath school scholars. The tableau at the close of the entertainment was enjoyed by the audience.

The usual holiday routine of recitations and service of song were observed at the Methodist Protestant church. The decorations were worthy of mention. An old fashioned home was built on the platform, the fireplace being formed of brick, made up of red boxes containing sweetmeats. The electric lights were so fashioned in the fireplace as to nicely represent living coals of fire. There were three evergreen arches in front of the platform, and interspersed throughout these arches were electric bulbs, while in the top of the center arch shone forth a large star, the "Star of Bethlehem." The electric display was in charge of Howard Kerr. Some 412 boxes of candy were given. A liberal collection was taken up for the benefit of the Nebraska sufferers.

The Sunday school room of the First Presbyterian church was filled to overflowing last night, the occasion being the annual Christmas treat. The youngsters were made happy with the customary offering, and the merry party remained for several hours, enjoying the pleasant entertainment. The Sunday school is in exceptionally fine condition, and can present a record worthy of reproduction. Superintendent George Matheny can show where 36 scholars did not miss a day last year, and 14 have not been absent for two years. Eleven persons have been in their places every day for three years, and seven have not missed in four years, while four have a clear record for attendance in five years. The books show that two persons have each been present seven and nine years respectively, and Philip McShane has not missed being at the meetings for 13 years, a record which will stand with any in the city. A number of teachers and scholars were last night presented with especially fine tokens of esteem, some classes giving valuable mementoes of the occasion. The treat this year was among the most pleasant in the history of the congregation.

The treat at the Christian church last night was attended by a large audience, one of the largest ever seen in the building. All the children were given appropriate souvenirs of the occasion, and were then treated to a delightful musical and literary entertainment. The occasion will rank among the most enjoyable in the history of the church, and shows the energetic spirit of the officers.

All of the East End churches entertained the children on Christmas eve, and in a manner well worthy the prosperity which that part of the city enjoys. The number of youngsters provided with the usual allowance of sweets was larger than on any former occasion. Last night a cantata was rendered in the Second Methodist Episcopal church, a large audience being in attendance. The young people taking part did very well.

The North Side chapel of the Presbyterian church was handsomely decorated for the treat Monday evening. An elaborate program was rendered, one of the chief features being an able address by Reverend Lee.

HOLIDAY EVENTS

Happiness on Christmas Day and Thereabout—Several Reunions.

Holiday events so far as Christmas was concerned were numerous.

George Hausfeldt gave a Christmas dinner to several of his friends yesterday, and needless to say it was enjoyable.

Fifteen of the family of Mrs. Caroline White were present at a Christmas reunion in East End yesterday and spent a day of rare enjoyment.

Charles Tarr entertained the members of the Wilson Day theatrical company at his cozy home on Sixth street with an elegant dinner Monday afternoon. The reception was a most pleasant one for all.

The relatives of Dr. E. M. Laughlin held a reunion at the doctor's residence, 184 Fifth street, yesterday. Members of the family were guests from Steubenville, Columbus, Millport and Georgetown, Pa., 17 in all surrounding the festal board for their Christmas dinner. It was a happy reunion.

In the line of amusements there was all the pleasure seekers could desire. A large house greeted the Wilson Day opera company in "Inside Track" at the Grand Monday night and another big house witnessed "Devil's Web" by the same troupe Christmas night. The Christmas matinee was, like the other performances, well attended and all of the performances were well worth the prices of admission. The company plays "Lost and Won," a play that will interest to say the least. At the rink Christmas eve the glass workers' ball was one of the best conducted and most successful of its kind ever held there.

A large crowd was present and the usual crowd at public dances was conspicuous by their absence, many persons being refused admittance. Yesterday afternoon and last night skating was enjoyed by large crowds. The race between Milt Holtzman on a bicycle and Homer Risinger on skates was won by Holtzman by half a lap. He made 40 laps in nine minutes and startled the crowd by falling from his wheel and regaining the saddle without touching the floor. The Turners entertainment was a very enjoyable affair. Many from this city attended Christmas events in Wellsville, Salineville, Irondale and other places.

CHRISTMAS WEDDINGS.

Those Who Celebrated in a Notable Manner.

Reverend Taggart said the words yesterday which made Mr. William Price and Miss Carrie White man and wife.

Mr. W. R. White and Miss Ollie E. Vandine were married yesterday by Doctor Huston. Both are well known young people of the city.

Mr. Edward Dean and Miss Ada Burgess were joined for life by Reverend Taggart, at the United Presbyterian parsonage Monday evening.

Doctor Huston, of the First Methodist Episcopal church, officiated at the wedding of Mr. William E. Rollins and Miss Clara Saxon yesterday.

Mr. Thomas Leek and Miss Sadie Harmon were married at the home of the bride, on Fourth street, yesterday, the ceremony being performed by Reverend Whitehead, of the Methodist Protestant church.

A pretty church wedding was that of Mr. Joseph Naler and Miss Mary Draper at the Christian church yesterday morning. Reverend Jones, of Wellsville, said the words which united the young couple, and a large number of people witnessed the event.

The marriage of Thomas R. Farrell and Miss Annie Hancock was solemnized on Christmas day at 4 o'clock p. m., at the home of Mr. George Turner on Walnut street. Squire Jethro Manley officiating. The young couple start out in life with the best wishes of a host of friends.

Two Pleasant Parties.

The Phoenix club entertained in their usual hospitable and pleasing manner in their rooms last evening, about 50 persons being in attendance. The amusement was dancing.

The Alphan Dancing society gave a reception at Bradshaw hall last evening, the attendance being large. Excellent music made the evening decidedly pleasant.

Substantial Christmas Gifts.

Sentence Saturday.

Special to the News Review.

LISBON, Dec. 26.—The sentence in the case of Charles Rose, who was allowed to plead guilty to assault and battery as a compromise of the sensational Rose shooting case, has been postponed until Saturday.

A FEW BROKE THE LAW

And Were Gathered in by the Police.

AN UMBRELLA CAUSED TROUBLE

Because the Owner Poked It Through a Window—Several Plain Drunks, and a Man With a Twisted Leg Ends the Lot—It Costs to Jump Trains.

Although Christmas is numbered with holidays and other eventful occasions the police were not busy yesterday.

James Mullen, a boy not yet arrived at man's estate, was found near the Knowles, Taylor & Knowles plant very drunk on Monday evening. Chief Gill called the patrol, and Mayor Gilbert assessed him $6.75 when he was sober enough to know the importance of the occasion. He would not tell the authorities where he secured the liquor, but it may be made known when the police make another arrest. Being unable to pay Mullen was given lodgings at the jail.

Ed Saunders, the colored man charged with jumping on trains, was asked to pay $9.00, but not having the money in his possession, was allowed to remain in durance vile.

The man Barkhurst, who is held in default of $200 because of a doubtful transaction in which he is implicated, will be taken to Lisbon some day this week if the security is not forthcoming.

Chief Gill captured George Brown on Sixth street yesterday, and knowing that George had more than he could carry, assisted him to city hall. George was also very disorderly and refused to be quiet until the chief arrived, when he became meek and lowly, but not to that extent desired by peace and quiet. He was charged with being drunk and disorderly.

Fred Bloor was taken in by the patrol yesterday, having been found in the Diamond in such a deplorable condition that it was impossible for him to walk. He had been drinking, and in staggering fell and wrenched his leg in a frightful manner. He excited the sympathy of a big crowd until someone thought that it was best to have him in charge of the authorities.

James Penney was wandering about city hall last night very drunk, when Constable Albright chanced to notice that he was entirely too hilarious for a man to properly celebrate Christmas. Being almost within sight of the prison doors, Penney was taken in and permitted to sleep off the effects of his spree.

The charge against Penney was malicious destruction of property, because as he walked along Second street he poked the stick of an umbrella through a window in John Rinehart's office.

THE WOMAN'S HOME.

A Worthy Institution, Fully Deserving of Patronage.

On Market street, almost opposite the city building, is located the Woman's Home, an institution which is worthy of recognition at the hands of all truly charitable men and women. Working girls are here provided with a comfortable room and good, palatable food for the small sum of $2 per week. Think of it, readers of the News Review—good meals at the rate of 94 cents per meal, with lodging thrown in by way of good measure. Good and true Christian women, members of the Woman's Christian Temperance union, render efficient service, gratuitously, in keeping the establishment in proper running order. The only one paid about the home is the cook, in charge of dining room and kitchen. There are a number of young women engaged in various vocations in our city who are receiving but very small wages, and the home comes in the lives of such as a blessing indeed. Christian men and women of East Liverpool, those who are blessed with a liberal share of this world's goods, cannot you find it in your heart to help these good women of the Woman's Christian Temperance union in sustaining the home? Sit down by your cosy fireside, think the matter over seriously, determine that "Tis more blessed to give than to receive," and then send a liberal contribution to Mrs. President Howard.

HE WANTED AN ULSTER.

He Thought He Was Smart, But Was Caught in a Trap.

On Saturday night last, Mr. George C. Murphy carried his dummies to the step in front of his storeroom. An individual well known in this community, a married man, who has been guilty of bad actions heretofore, stationed himself alongside of one of the dummies, skillfully unbuttoned from the form a handsome ulster, valued at $16, and started swiftly away with the property. Fortunately for the rightful owner, he had taken the precaution to protect himself from just such thieves, and had chained the storm protector to the dummy, and the would-be thief was utterly dismayed and thoroughly discomfited by the wisdom and foresight of Mr. Murphy, and he dropped the coat as if it had been impregnated with fire and sped away into the night. He was recognized, however, fully and completely, through the medium of the large mirror which stands in the rear of the establishment, and which showed up the actions of the thief just as plainly as if the owner had been standing by the rascal's side. There is talk of prosecuting the fellow, although the proprietor is inclined to mercy on account of the family of the thief. He should be run out of the city by the authorities, and not be allowed to further carry on his nefarious work.

THE AFFLICTED.

Those Who Are Confined to Their Homes With Various Complaints.

A little child of George Tomlinson, of West End, is ill with congestion of the brain.

Miss Gertrude Barrett, a well-known and popular young lady, is seriously ill at her home in Bradshaw addition with a threatened attack of fever.

Mrs. James Doty is seriously ill at her home near Walnut street, with an attack of gastric fever.

Mrs. Will Reed is ill at her home, 182 Fifth street, with a threatened attack of fever.

Officer Harvey Badgley, who sustained a badly sprained foot while attempting to board the patrol wagon, is still off duty and confined to his home. The foot is still badly swollen and causing the officer much pain. Mrs. Badgley has been critically ill for some time, but is slightly improving.

Thomas Pittenger has been seriously ill at his home in East End, but is now improving slowly.

Mrs. Thomas McClann, Sixth street, is recovering from her late severe illness, much to the satisfaction of her numerous friends.

Mrs. Will Taylor suffered a relapse last night.

Mrs. Bulger, mother of Alvin H. Bulger, was somewhat better yesterday, but is still confined to her bed.

Miss Blanche Paul, Fifth street, is convalescent.

Put Him Off.

If all drunken men were treated in the manner which one was the other day there would be fewer of the kind bothering the public, especially in street cars. The specimen in question boarded a car at Second street, and as it rounded the curve at Washington he fell on another passenger. The latter used his knee to start him toward the other side of the car and he fell on the floor in a heap. In this position he shoved his hand through the partly open door to secure change from the motorman, but that gentleman grabbed him by the coat collar in an instant, and applying his foot vigorously, sent the lover of strong drink towards the pavement. The passengers smiled and showered blessings on the man at the motor.

Alas, My Turkey.

J. R. Warner, William Seaton and George Thomas, all residents of Seventh street, are the owners of nice refrigerators, and in said receptacle they often deposit the necessities and sometimes the luxuries of life. Luxuries, in the shape of plump turkeys, were contained therein on Monday night last, and some observant and deeply interested parties, aside from the rightful owners, became cognizant of the fact, with the result that three good and true citizens found their turkeys conspicuous by their absence on Christmas morning, and the heads of three households were very angry.

A Lucky Postmaster.

Postmaster H. L. Simms is one of the best pleased men in the city today. Yesterday the entire force of Uncle Sam's servants, 13 in number, assembled at the office and presented the postmaster with a beautiful stud set with several handsome diamonds. Mr. Simms will long remember his force as the most efficient in the history of the office.

A Couple of Cases.

The case of City Engineer John A. George versus George Olenhausen and wife for $25 was tried in Squire Rose's court Christmas eve. The squirrel has not yet rendered his decision.

Julia Gamble and Maud Bangor have sued James Mays for $20, claimed due for board. The case was set of trial at city hall at 2 o'clock this afternoon.

HE FELL DOWN STAIRS

But Did Not Call a Doctor for a Week.

MR. MOLINSKY'S MISFORTUNE

May Cause His Death—A German Tailor Who Worked While Suffering With a Contusion of the Brain, a Broken Arm and a Bruised Head.

Mr. Malinsky, a German tailor, is lying at his home in Diamond alley in a critical condition as the result of an accident, and the chances are that he will never recover.

The accident happened almost a week ago, but until Monday night he did not call for medical aid, and now it is feared that he has secured it only too late. Malinsky is in the employ of Fred Laufenberger, and it has been his custom to return to work after supper each evening. He started on such a mission and when he reached the head of the stairs it was very dark. He made a misstep and fell headlong to the bottom, passing over 20 steps without touching one. His injuries were such that he was dently sick, and vomited a great deal, meanwhile complaining of injuries to his neck, head and arm. But he pluckily maintained that he was not injured to any extent and went to his work, where he staid until midnight. He worked the next morning until noon, and then came home and took to his bed. It was only after much persuasion that he allowed his wife to call a physician, and Doctor Laughlin was summoned. He found that Malinsky had sustained a contusion of the brain, a fractured wrist and severe bruises about the head. He had not eaten a mouthful since the accident and was frequently seized with spells of vomiting. He is resting easier today, but his condition is not much changed and the unfortunate man cannot raise his head from the pillow without becoming deathly sick. As few cases of this kind ever recover there is little or no hope for him. Malinsky is aged about 45 years and has a wife and several children.

Sent Him Away.

William Smith, a old soldier who wandered away into the country last Friday and was taken home in the patrol Saturday in a half frozen and paralyzed condition, was sent to Steubenville Monday by the township trustees. Director Bowers, of the infirmary, came up after him. The man's condition was caused partially by his taking off his coat and vest to wrap around his little son when the two laid down to sleep all night in an open field. Smith will go to the Jefferson county infirmary, and his family will be sent to Steubenville tomorrow.

An Irondale Battle.

The usual quiet of Irondale was broken yesterday by an encounter which was the talk of the town. Mr. Handled and one of the striking tin workers became involved in a war of words, and before the witnesses could realize what was happening the workman had been knocked down several times. The two men were quickly separated, and the battle brought to a sudden stop. Many of the Pittsburgh men who came to work in the plant when the strike was on have gone home, but the mill continues to turn out its product.

A Handsome Present.

George C. Murphy was the lucky recipient. Our genial townsman received, as a Christmas present, a handsome diamond solitaire. Send Santa Claus around to the News Review office on his next trip, friend George, and he will be accorded a royal welcome.

An Uncertain Address.

Postmaster Simms has in his possession a letter addressed to "W. F. Brand, editor of Liverpool Telegraph." There are no other words upon the envelope, and the postmaster would like to know who owns the letter.

Plenty to Eat.

The Grand army distributed to the city for Christmas 30 baskets, each containing a chicken, peck of potatoes, sack of flour and other things. These went to soldiers' widows, and made glad many a home in the city.

Business Under Difficulties.

Street cars are running under difficulties today. The wire broke at East End and the turntable refuses to work, having been frozen last night. Cars are being run backward from Wellsville.

Luck at Last.

J. F. Quick, the gentleman who has been so unfortunate since he came to the city, is improving, and was on the street for the first time today.

EAST LIVERPOOL, O., WEDNESDAY, DEC. 26.

For President, WILLIAM MCKINLEY, OF Ohio.

FROM now until next Tuesday the average man will attempt to convince his wife that he has a whole string of new resolutions for New Year's.

If Uncle Sam is compelled to spank some one in Honolulu it is to be hoped that Secretary Gresham will not step in and by his inexperienced meddling spoil the job.

THAT race war in Alabama should be brought to a sudden termination. It matters not what the grievance may be both sides are subservient to the laws of the state.

WILLIAM WILSON threatens to write a book, and a lot of other back numbers who will sit in Washington for a few months more are thinking of the lecture platform. Verily the Democratic leaders will be avenged.

THE announcement of Mr. Cokey that he will be a candidate for the presidency is in keeping with the case hardened nerve of the commonwealer. Every time he appears in public he proves that the people of the Eighteenth did well in permitting him to operate his quarries instead of occupying a seat in congress.

A GOOD VIEW. Senator Lodge has this to say concerning Democracy.

"They have demonstrated to all mankind that they regard a promise merely a pie-crust, made only to be broken. As they made different promises in every part of the country, they succeeded in disappointing everybody, a most unusual feat for which they should have due credit. They were also able to perform the still more difficult feat of being false to their own bad principles, without being true to anybody else's good principles. This may sound complicated, but, then, the Democratic party is complicated, and if you think it over, you will find that as a criticism it is not without force."

What a mass of people there are in the country who truly know that the senator gives utterance to the plain, unvarnished truth."

Odorless Flowers.

One who has taken a walk through Shaw's garden will hardly believe the assertion that the majority of the flowers of the world are without odor, but such is the case. Take the flora of Europe as an illustration. Four thousand and two hundred species and varieties of flowers have been named and classified by the botanists of that country, and it has been found that less than 10 per cent of the whole give forth distinguishable odors or have perceptible colors. The very commonest flowers of the world are white, colorless varieties predominating by at least one-third, and only one-sixth of that class are odoriferous. In Europe there are 1,194 species of white flowers, only 200 of which are fragrant. In the same country they have 951 kinds of yellow flowers, of which number only 77 are odoriferous. Out of 823 varieties of red flowers they only have 84 that give forth odor, and in 9 of these "the smell is far from being fragrant." Of the 594 blue species only 34 are fragrant and of the 308 violet blues only 13. Next week we will give a "note" entitled "The Odor of Flowers," which will give many curious points in that branch of botanical knowledge.—St. Louis Republic.

Talking Through a Human Body. To talk through a human body, or a row of human bodies, for the matter of that, is one of the weirdest of the electrical feats. If a telephone wire be severed and the two ends be held by a person, one in each hand, but far apart, it is quite possible for two individuals to carry on a conversation through the body of the medium as readily and as distinctly as if the line had been properly connected.—Electricity.

SPAIN WON'T YIELD.

Gresham's Protest Likely to Prove of No Avail.

ANSWER EXPECTED THIS WEEK.

The threatened closing of our ports will shut out Cuban raw sugar—Spain's tariff discrimination has already done us much damage.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 26.—Interesting developments are expected as a result of the strained relations existing between the United States and Spain over the tariff.

In official circles it is not believed that Spain will yield to the protest of Secretary Gresham. In that event, if the secretary carries out his threat of retaliation, President Cleveland will issue a proclamation closing American ports to the products of Spain. The first effect of this will be to shut out the enormous shipments of raw sugar which Cuba makes to this country. In official circles it is said that Cuba furnishes seven-eighths of all the raw sugar used in American refineries.

The other eighth comes from Louisiana and Hawaii, but it is said that it would be impossible to make up the seven-eighths now drawn from Cuba. It is asserted, therefore, by those in no way identified with or partial to the sugar refineries that the retaliation would cut them off from their supplies and close them up, throwing 20,000 employees out of work. The statement was made by a high official that the ultimate effect of the warfare would be to advance the price of sugar from 3 cents to 6 cents per pound.

The contending views are now being urged between Minister Taylor and members of the Spanish cabinet and definite results are expected this week. The immediate effects of Spain's action have already proved disastrous to the American trade in flour, and this trade has passed almost exclusively into the hands of Canada. Under the old reciprocity arrangement with Spain American flour was shipped to Cuba in great quantities.

But when the United States tariff raised the duty on Cuban sugar Spain responded by raising the duty on American flour. The first column duty on flour is $4.75, while the second column is $4. As Canada is in the second column she enjoys an advantage of 75 cents a barrel of flour, and this has proved ample to allow Canada to wrest the Cuban flour trade away from the United States.

Once Killed a Man in Ohio.

RALEIGH, N. C., Dec. 26.—James H. Yarborough has been found dead in bed in a hotel here. He was a native of North Carolina and eight years ago killed a man in Ohio, was tried for murder but was convicted of manslaughter and sentenced to life imprisonment. Just after sentence was passed he attempted to suicide by cutting his throat and his life was barely saved. Petitions were widely circulated in this state asking the governor of Ohio to pardon him, and last August a pardon was granted and Yarborough, after seven years of confinement, returned to North Carolina. He had been drinking heavily several days.

An Echo of the Big Strike.

CHICAGO, Dec. 26.—A suit has been begun by R. C. Rathbun against the Chicago and Eastern Illinois, which, if successful, will add heavily to the expenses resulting to the railroads from the big strikes of last summer. Rathbun sues for $180, wages he claims due him for services as deputy marshal during the strike, and his attorneys say that his suit is a test case for hundreds of men who served in similar capacities. The case will reach a hearing next week.

Jumped to Her Death.

HARTFORD, Dec. 26.—The 3-year-old daughter of Mrs. Michael Bernstein was in a baby carriage in the kitchen when she demanded something to eat. Her 9-year-old sister refused to get her anything. The baby first pouted, then cried and then jumped into a wash-bowl two-thirds full of boiling water. Mrs. Bernstein plunged her bare arms into the water and lifted the little one out, but it died in great agony in two hours.

Police May Bear Arms in Court.

ST. LOUIS, Dec. 26.—The recent court disturbance ending in a conflict between Chief of Police Harrigan and Judge Murphy over the right of a police officer to bear arms while on duty, even though that duty be the giving of testimony in court, came to a climax when Judge Edmunds decided in a test of a habeas corpus case that the officers imprisoned for contempt were not in contempt in wearing their arms in court.

Judge Draw's Strange Stand.

BOSTON, Dec. 26.—A Mrs. Boardman was accosted on the street after dark by a tramp, who demanded her money. She gave him her purse. Judge Drew refused to issue a warrant for the tramp's arrest, holding that as he had not taken Mrs. Boardman's money by force, he was not guilty of highway robbery.

Two Indians Married.

CARLEISLE, Pa., Dec. 26.—Dennison Wheelock, Indian director of the Indian school, and Louise La Chappelle, a Chippewa girl, have been married at Captain Pratt's residence. Rev. Dr. Norcross of the Presbyterian church officiated. Wheelock is a graduate of the school.

A Cashier $8,000 Short.

IRVINE, Ky., Dec. 26.—R. B. Baird, cashier of the Citizens' bank of Jellico, Tenn., has finished his examination of the books of the local bank, and finds that the missing cashier, McDowell, is short about $8,000 in his accounts. The cashier left suddenly some two months ago and is supposed to be in Canada.

LAFAYETTE, Ind., Dec. 26.—Two Big Four freight trains collided at Culver's station, totally demolishing both engines and six freight cars and instantly killing Engineer Elijah Campbell of Indianapolis and fatally injuring a tramp.

HOW BULLETS ARE CAUGHT.

One of the most mystifying conjuring tricks neatly explained. Speaking of the bullet catching trick in particular, Professor F. D. Howes, who is also a dealer in the art mystic, said:

"There are literally but few tricks in magic. The so-called new ones presented to the public from time to time by our leading magicians, conjurers or whatever they call themselves, are simply the revival of some old experiments clothed in new form. The catching of bullets is not by any means a new trick, for it is almost as old as magic itself. I remember seeing the old 'Fakir of Ava' perform the same trick, only in a different manner, when I was a small boy. The catching of the bullet is easily explained. In the first place, to accomplish it the conjurer must procure an old style caplock, smooth bore musket, some powder, caps and a leaden bullet. All these must be perfectly free from any deception. Now we come to the ramrod. Therein lies the whole mystery of the trick. It is constructed with a small metallic tube closed at one end and so arranged as to become detached from the end of the ramrod at will.

"Having explained the construction of all the appliances, we will now proceed to do the trick. The gun, bullet, powder and caps are freely given for examination. The performer requests some one to put the charge of powder into the gun. Next he inserts a small piece of paper and rams it down, and by a twist of the ramrod to the left the small metallic tube is dislodged from the point and remains within the gun barrel. Now the bullet is marked and placed in the gun by one of the audience; again the professor rams it down. Now, by a contrary twist, the metallic tube becomes fast to the ramrod so that in withdrawing it the bullet is removed.

"The performer now palms the marked bullet and all that remains to do is to go through the motions of catching it when the gun is discharged, and the spectators are thoroughly mystified. You see, it is all very simple when you know how."—Boston Post.

Veronese's Big Painting.

Veronese loved to represent festive gatherings on a colossal scale. His "Marriage of Cana" is 30 feet long and 20 feet high and contains 130 figures. The most remarkable feature of the painting is the group of musicians in front round a table. Among this party Veronese represents Titian, Tintoretto, himself and other celebrated painters.—Exchange.

QUITMAN, Ga., Dec. 26.—The trouble in Brooks county is over. The Valdosta videttes were ordered here by the governor, Captain Cafferty, Lieutenant Staten and Lieutenant Peoples, Dr. Bass and Sheriff Thrasher at once visited the scene of the trouble. They found peace restored, and the citizens assured them there would be no more troubles, and they came back to Quitman and the Valdosta videttes soon left for Valdosta. The killing of the negroes was entirely uncalculated. They were killed because they were supposed to know the whereabouts of Waverly Pike, whose crime was the original incentive to lawlessness. Good citizens of the county will do their utmost to bring to justice the men who are responsible for the trouble.

SOUTHERN LYNCHINGS.

They Provoke English Newspaper Comments on the Negro Problem.

LONDON, Dec. 26.—In a leader on the lynching of negroes in the southern states, The Post says: "It is hardly open to question that in many parts of the former slaveholding states of the American Union the negro question is rapidly approaching a critical state. In the north the gravity of the situation is hardly recognized, although the whites refuse in practice to accord the negro that political and social equality to which he is theoretically entitled. In the south no hallucinations exist. In parts of the south, where white families are often completely isolated, each white man knows that he and his family are in a position of perpetual peril. That a critical point has been reached, however, is shown by the fact that the negroes display a tendency to stand by men of their own race and aid them if need be. It will be necessary to face a race war some day. The result of course could not be doubtful. The power of organization of the white man is far superior to that of the negro, and in the case of a racial war the whites would have exclusive command of the sea. Such a struggle, however, would be far from ending the negro question. The root of the trouble lies principally in the fact that negroes multiply more rapidly than whites, who insist on ruling no matter at what cost. Against such universal conviction there is no appeal, nor is it possible to say that this conviction is devoid of justification."

"Hayti and Liberia do not furnish favorable evidence of the capacity of the negro to govern, and the negro press of the southern states does not afford any indication that the black population of the territory possesses either discretion or enlightenment. The idea of settling the negro question by the ultimate fusion of the races is untenable. In many states of the Union mixed marriages are illegal, and in all white women who are willing to accept black husbands belong to the class which has nothing to lose. The progress of time increases the peril of the situation and does nothing to bring about a solution of the problem. The government of the United States has before it the problem of the successful treatment of a race which concerns not only the republic, but the whole civilized world."

Secretary of State Taylor has received many letters of inquiry regarding the exercise of the limited franchise by women. One man wants to know if the women can adopt the emblems of the old parties or whether they can organize as parties and adopt new emblems to vote under.

Wants $5,000 to Recover Over $6,000.

BRYCES, O., Dec. 26.—Ex-Auditor A. J. High has commenced action before the county commissioners to recover over $6,000, which he had paid under protest into the county treasury. In 1890 a committee of investigation examined the accounts of the auditor's office during the incumbency of Adam J. High. As a result fees in amount exceeding $6,000 which had been collected by him were declared illegal, and were by him covered back into the county treasury. He made restitution under protest, holding that he was entitled to the money under the law, and now he has begun proceedings to recover the amount.

Probably an Ohio Boy.

He refuses to give his name or tell anything of his antecedents. He was convicted, and is borne on the prison records as "One Jesse." From the fact that he knows certain members of the board of managers and other people in this state, it is supposed that he is an Ohio boy. His language and appearance give indications that he comes of a family of culture and standing.

SPRINGFIELD, O., Dec. 26.—The trustees of the Griffith City mission have resigned in a body, leaving the concern to the management of the superintendent. The mission is incorporated, and as provision is made in the articles of incorporation for a board of trustees, their resignation virtually breaks up the institution. The mission was organized several years ago, and has done some good work, but lately it has been rumored that all was not running smoothly, and that there was dissension among those managing the mission.

IN ABSOLUTE FILTH.

Sad Plight of Passengers at Chester Pa., Quarantine.

CHILDREN STARVING TO DEATH.

The Food Described as Not Being Fit For Dogs.—Clean Food Purchased by a Passenger Confiscated by the Officials. Complaints Filed.

CHESTER, Pa., Dec. 26.—The 356 steerage passengers of the steamer South-west, which was recently detained off that city on account of the death of a passenger from smallpox, are confined at the quarantine station here in the most absolute filth and privation. In an interview one of the passengers said that a petition complaining of the food was signed by 250 of them, but the officials in charge suppressed it.

It is declared that the food is not fit to serve to dogs. To receive it the prisoners are compelled to stand in line in the open air. One man who has money sent out and bought $27 worth of clean food for the mothers with small children, but the goods were confiscated because they had not come through the managers. A policeman on duty at the station said that he would resign because he could not see little children starve to death.

The entire camp is in the filthiest condition possible, and it is asserted that no soap, water or towels have been provided since landing.

Many disgusting details are related, and the people of the city, fearing disease, had the matter before the Chester board of health today and demanded immediate action.

The cabin passengers were allowed to pass up the river and this distinction is complained of by the passengers. A number of Philadelphians, who have wives and children in the colony, have been driven away upon attempting to see them.

Fatal Fight With Toughs.

PHILADELPHIA, Dec. 26.—While Policeman McFarland was attempting to arrest William Brown, one of a gang of uptown toughs, he was set upon by Charles Gallagher, John Morrell and William Slaar, companions of Brown. To defend himself and hold his prisoner, McFarland fired three shots from his revolver, one of which tore out Gallagher's right eye, another lodged at the base of his brain. The other man then seized the policeman's club and pistol and after knocking him down, shot twice at him. One bullet struck the policeman's arm, and the other inflicted a flesh wound on the body. Gallagher is dying at the hospital, and McFarland is in a serious condition as a result of the clubbing. Morrell and Slaar are in custody. Brown escaped.

Christmas at the White House.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 26.—The president and the members of the cabinet celebrated Christmas in the old-fashioned way, making it essentially a family affair. At the White House it was a genuine children's day, everything being given up to the pleasure of the little ones. As usual the president remembered all of the employees in the house. The only guest stopping at the White House was Mrs. Cleveland's mother, Mrs. Perrine, and the dinner was strictly limited to the family. Proceeding it, however, there was a pretty little luncheon set out for the children of the members of the cabinet, who came to the White House to see the Christmas tree.

WINTER MAY CAUSE DELAY.

Frozen Rivers Likely to Keep the Chinese Ambassadors Back.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 26.—No information has yet reached the Japanese legation here of the appointment of peace commissioners to treat with the two Chinese ambassadors recently appointed. The suggestion is advanced that the Japanese government is probably awaiting the arrival of the Chinese ambassadors before making the appointments. The Japanese commissioners need not, in fact, be appointed until some formal proposition is made by the Chinese envoys.

Owing to the fact that communication from Peking to a Chinese port is somewhat delayed on account of the frozen rivers and canals, the arrival of the Chinese in Japan may be delayed for some time. Nothing concerning the report that Shao, one of the Chinese ambassadors, will be persona non grata to the Japanese on account of his action as governor of Formosa, has been received at the legation.

Yesterday was unusually quiet, as the record at police court will show. The Hawaiian George Sata Natives Are Satisfied With the Republic.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 26.—No concern or alarm is felt at the Hawaiian legation here from the reports of fresh plotting by the royalists to overthrow the provisional government and restore Queen Liliuokalani. Mr. Hastings, the charge d'affaires of the legation, received telegraphic reports from his government via San Francisco after the arrival of the Australia, about ten days ago, and the Arawa a week later, which say that everything is quiet.

Hastings says the natives are peaceable and willing to accept the new government as it is and have never been inflamed nor stirred up since its formation. He fears no danger from the band of men who are now reported as having designs against the government, and says there is but one full native born in the list and asserts that there is no fighting spirit in them.

The Railroad Man, The Clergyman, The Business Man, and all other men who have to look neat while at work, should know about "CELLULOID" COLLARS AND CUFFS. They look exactly like linen, wear well and being waterproof do not wilt down with heat and moisture. They do not soil easily and can be cleaned in a moment by simply wiping off with a wet sponge or cloth. Do not confuse these in your mind with composition goods. Every piece of the genuine is stamped like this:

Ask for these and refuse anything else if you wish satisfaction. Remember that goods so marked are the only waterproof goods made by coating a linen collar with waterproof "Celluloid," thus giving strength and durability. If your dealer should not have the "Celluloid" send amount direct to us and we will mail you sample post-paid. Collars 25c each. Cuffs, 50c pair. State size and whether stand-up or turned-down collar is wanted.

To Whom It May Interest.

A middle aged lady dressed in a brown silk entered a crowded cable car on the North Side.

A young man in a corduroy suit half rose, glanced at her and sat down again. Should this meet the eye of the middle aged lady dressed in the brown silk she will be interested in learning that the young man in the corduroy suit is a lover of birds.

And she will recall the fact that she wore on her bonnet the stuffed remains of four ruby throated humming birds.
